

Digital health: lessons from the medical deserts

Prof. Antoine Geissbuhler, MD

Phikal health center in East Nepal

50% of cases can be managed with remote medical expertise & point-of-care diagnostics

May increase access for women and elderly

Medical education reform in Kyrgyzstan

Transforming medical education to appropriately staff medical deserts

Higher education of Somali refugees in the Dadaab refugee camp in Kenya

Medical capacity building via eLearning with credits from the University of Geneva and remote mentoring by Swiss medical students

Improving primary health care outcomes through mHealth

Integrated eDiagnostic Approach

700+ healthcare facilities in Burkina Faso

2'500+ health workers use it daily

200'000 consultations per month

<http://raft.network>

ag@hcuge.ch

UNIVERSITÉ
DE GENÈVE